Learn about the many benefits
AISC provides to students!

FREE Membership

AISC offers complimentary membership to students currently enrolled full-time in undergraduate or graduate programs at accredited U.S. universities. Enjoy free access to online publications and videos including design guides and examples. It's easy to join! Visit www.aisc.org/join for details.

Student Manual Discount Program

Students receive a deep discount (lower than our member rate!) on AISC Manuals when purchased through the Student Manual Discount Program. Contact universityprograms@aisc.org for more information.

Scholarships

AISC administers over $200,000 in scholarship funds annually to students at U.S. colleges and universities. Visit www.aisc.org/scholarships to view our scholarship opportunities and eligibility requirements.

Student Competitions

Thousands of students annually participate in our exciting student competitions, like AISC's Student Steel Bridge Competition and the ACSA/AISC Steel Design Student Competition. Head to www.aisc.org/studentcompetitions for further information.

NASCC: The Steel Conference

Students are encouraged to attend AISC's unparalleled industry event, NASCC: The Steel Conference. AISC Student Members receive complimentary registration to The Steel Conference, and those who attend our unique student event, "Students Connecting with Industry Sessions" (SCIS), can receive travel reimbursement and a complimentary ticket to the exciting conference dinner event! Visit www.aisc.org/scis for information on our most recent Steel Conference.
