Bulletin Title:	Simplifying Certification Fee Schedules
Inquiries:	certification@aisc.org
To:	All participants and applicants

AISC is moving to a more predictable fee schedule as approved by our Board of Directors in October 2020 to simplify your planning and budgeting processes. Base certification fees, which haven't increased since 2015, will increase 10% with this update.

To create greater predictability for budgeting and avoid large increases, we will increase base certification fees by 2% annually beginning in 2023. Fees for additional certifications and endorsements will remain the same, as will additional application fees.

Your next invoice

The new fee schedule takes effect October 4, 2021, for participants and applicants. For current participants, your invoice for an audit scheduled after January 1, 2022, will reflect the updates. For new applicants, your invoices issued after October 4 will reflect the updates, as well. You can find further information about the updated schedules here:
